Week 9 Term 4

Our new Principal starting in 2018 is Mrs Louise Dunn, currently Principal of Pelican Flat Public School. We look forward to welcoming her next year.

What a fabulous night we had last Wednesday at our Christmas Carnival. Everything was perfect. A huge thankyou to the P & C and Michelle Arms who co-ordinated the evening. Thankyou to the wonderful volunteers who manned stalls and our wonderful 'Pops' on the BBQ. A special thank you to our fantastic fireman who bought Mr & Mrs Claus to the celebrations. Another magical event at Garden Suburb Public School.

Our Science Fair showcased our budding Professors. They enjoyed showing off their knowledge to all. Well done!

The leaders speeches were amazing and showed their willingness to commit themselves to our school community, student's and staff. Our new Principal will be well supported by our leaders. The 2018 leaders will be announced at the Presentation Assembly tomorrow.

On Friday all students will be having a Principal's Lunch. I will be cooking sausages for the school. Lunch will be a sausage sandwich, a drink and a lollipop. If your child needs something else cooked on the BBQ please let your child's teacher know.

Our gymnastics program has been a huge success with students loving the challenges and learning new skills. Well done to our budding Olympic gymnasts.

Have a great week!
